fore an audience of 1,000 people. He made a half hour address upon Psy-

5000 PEOPLE INSPECT SANATORIUM

Public Visiting Day at New London County Institution Drew Big Crowd—All Highly Pleased With Provisions Made For Cure of the Sick—Commissioner Gunshanan Present

Fully 5,000 people, it was estimated, traveled to the New London County tuberculosis sanatorium here on Sunday, to view what the state has done for the care of those afflicted with the disease.

The inspection hours were from 2 to 6 in the afternoon. All that time there was practically a continuous stream of people passing up and down the hill from the road to the sanatorium buildings and filling through the wards, administration building and every spot that offered a point of interest.

Dr. Hugh B. Campbell, the superintendent, was on hand with members of the staff, and the crowd was too big to allow any attempt to show visitors around, so that they were permitted to make their own inspection unhindered. Everything was open to the public view.

John F. Gunshanan of Hartford, a member of the state tuberculosis commission, was present during the afternoon. He was accompanied by Campbell's guest at dinner, the party including Mayor T. C. Murphy, Dr. J.
R. Dinnay, superintendent at Meriden,
Dr. Stroebel, assistant at Hartford, Frank S. Hitchcock, head of the anti-tuberculosis work in New London, Miss Cristoph, the bookkeeper, and Miss Keesack, the head nurse of the sanatorium. Also present were representatives of the Norwich Bulletin and of the New London Day.

The following menu was served by Mrs. Pratt, the head of the institution, who proved beyond a doubt to all participants that the food was of the right woman in the right place.

Chicken Soup
Roast Chicken
Celery
Cranberry Sauce
Mashed Potatoes
Fluffy Rice
Spinach
Tea
Apple Snow
Coffee
Lady Fingers
Macaroons
Grapes
Oranges
Bananas
